

Dewey W. Hammond, III, JD

Managing Director,
Decosimo Corporate Finance

Chattanooga

423-756-7100
423-266-6671 (fax)
deweyhammond@decosimo.com

Bachelor of Business Administration, Accounting
University of Georgia

Juris Doctor
University of Virginia Law School

Master of Business Administration,
Kenan-Flagler Business School,
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Dewey has twelve years experience in corporate finance and business consulting. He joined the firm in April 2002.

Dewey's corporate finance experience includes advising businesses on mergers and acquisitions, initiating and negotiating the sale of private companies, private placements of debt and equity, and business valuations. He founded and managed the Investment Banking Department of the Southeastern regional bank.

Dewey has worked with companies in a variety of industries including manufacturing, industrial distribution, consumer products, textiles, hospitality, business services, media and information technology.

Dewey started his career as a business attorney. He represented clients in acquisitions, divestitures, venture capital investments, bond and other debt financing and licensing contracts. He also has experience as a chief financial officer for a private waste management company and as a part owner and manager of an early-stage software and consulting company.

In addition to his corporate finance consulting experience, Dewey has advised businesses in strategic planning and human resource management processes.

Dewey graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting. He is also a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law and has an Master of Business Administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.